

REMARKS

Claims 21, 26, 27-31, 33-36, 41, 44, 47, 53, 56 and 57-75 incl. are in this case. All of these claims are allowed except 64 to 75 incl.

Claim 64 defines over the prior art in view of the recital in lines 6-10 in combination with the remaining elements of the claim.

Claim 65 depends from claim 64 and further defines over the prior art in view of the last seven lines of the claim.

Claim 66 depends from claim 64 and further defines over the prior art by reciting the parallel relation of the sides.

Claim 67 depends from claim 64 and further defines over the prior art by reciting "a third portion which surrounds both of said first and second portions in said space."

Claim 68 depends from claim 65, and further defines over the prior art in its last two lines.

Claim 69 depends from claim 68, and, further defines over the prior art by reciting the vertical paths.

Claim 70 depends from claim 65, and further defines over the prior art by reciting the extent of the output flow path.

Claim 71 depends from claim 65 and further defines over the prior art by reciting the extent of the input and output flow paths.

Claim 72 depends from claim 71 and further defines over the prior art by reciting the horizontal sides and the vertical paths.

Claim 73 defines over the prior art by reciting the input and output paths in combination with one of elements surrounding the other element plus the reservoir.

Claim 74 defines over the prior art by reciting the vertical relations of certain components of claim 73.

Claim 76 depends from claim 73 and defines over the prior art by reciting the vertical relation of certain parts of claim 73.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "William D. Hall".

William D. Hall
Register 14,311
Attorney for Applicant

10850 Stanmore Drive
Potomac, Maryland 20854
Tel. (301) 983-5070